CHRONOLOGICAL

Nov. 9 In History.

1800—Robert Dale Owen, author and statesman, born in Glasgow, died near Lake George, N. Y., 1877.

1864—John Middleton Clayton, American statesman, principal in the Bulwer-Clayton treaty, died in Dover, Del.; born 1796.

1872—Great Boston fire; 6 acres of the business district burned over; loss $20,000,000. Boston suffered from three extensive fires during the colonial days. The greatest of these was in 1780, when 260 buildings were destroyed. In 1847 over 100 buildings were burned in the north end. The fire of 1872 broke out on the corner of Summer and Kingston streets early in the evening and before it was stopped swept over 65 acres.

1882—Professor Herman August Hagen of Harvard college, well known entomologist, died at Cambridge, Mass.; born 1817. Annie Pixley, popular American actress, died in London.

IN SOCIETY

Entertained at Cards.

Mrs. Max Kaufman entertained at progressive euchre yesterday afternoon at her home on Seventh street. Prizes were won by Mrs. C. Fred Gallagher and Mrs. D. L. Marx. Refreshments were served.

Mr. J. Loeschner, organizer for the Woodmen of the World, will leave for Carbondale and Carrailla tonight and will organize a lodge at the latter place.

"Oster Joe."

A large and well pleased audience witnessed the production of "Oster Joe," by the Howard Stock company last night. The play was all that had been claimed for it and held the close attention of the audience. Miss Howard played a very difficult role in a brilliant manner and was given able support by Mr. Trimmer, Mr. Kelley and the remainder of the cast. Election returns were read until a late hour, a vaudeville show filling in the time after the regular performance.

GREAT VICTORY FOR DEMOCRATS

Nearly Every Candidate on the County Ticket Elected By Big Majority -- Cairo Polled Large Vote

The election in Alexander county yesterday resulted in a signal victory for the Democratic county ticket with a probability of every candidate being elected.

The vote in all the Cairo precincts was large as was also that of all the county precincts heard from.

The returns from the country were meagre but enough have been received to assure the re-election of Alexander Wilson to the office of state's attorney and Dr. James McManus to the office of coroner. The re-election of Lee B. Davis to the office of circuit clerk is also conceded by his opponent, Benj. Jones. The indications are that the race between James Mulrany, Democrat, and Dr. J. J. Jennelle, Republican, for the office of county commissioner will be close. The same may be said of the race for county surveyor between William M. Thripp, Democrat, and Harry Weiman, Republican.

Dr. James McManus has the largest majority of any candidate on the county ticket and his majority over his opponent, Dick Taylor, colored, will be several hundred votes.

The first ward gave the largest Democratic majorities for the county ticket but fell short of the usual majority for the head of the ticket. More hard work was done in this ward than any other in the city and it was evident that the vote for the head of the Democratic ticket would be sacrificed to insure the success of the county candidates, especially those of circuit clerk, state's attorney and coroner.

Another ward where there were strenuous times was the sixth, and it is claimed that much money changed hands during the day.

No Republican candidate ran ahead of Roosevelt, but every Democratic candidate polled several hundred votes more than Parker.

At the hour of going to press this morning the clerks were busily engaged counting the votes in the First and Eighth wards and for this reason the full returns in the city cannot be given.

ELECTION BRIEVITIES.

Few women took advantage of suffrage, but some votes were cast by them. The second ward probably led in this respect, having four women votes.

Possums were on sale at many of the stores and the demand was large.

Somebody suggested that it was a

The exact vote in the first ward was not known until about 9 o'clock this morning and the counting in the Eighth ward was not completed until 10 o'clock this morning. The figures given below from the first ward are, however, approximately correct and those of other wards may be relied upon as absolutely so, being given out by the clerks and judges as printed below.

At 5:30 this morning the clerks were still at work in the Eighth ward.

Tonight "The Shadow of the Cross," a beautiful costume drama, with special scenery entire, will be presented. The play is a powerful drama, with an effective ending, introducing a beautiful church scene. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. The company lay off Thursday night, resuming their engagement Friday.

NUTTING PARTY.

The members of the Thursday Card club will spend next Thursday in the "battle of blood," instead of a "battle of ballots."

The lively stable men did a good business and many rode in buggies yesterday who had not enjoyed such a luxury in many days.

Very few flags were on display, but Judge W. N. Butler showed the national colors at his residence.

Mr. Thomas W. Lehigh of 212 Twelfth street, aged 63 years, voted yesterday. He is almost helpless, being seriously afflicted with rheumatism, and was driven to the Third ward polling place in a buggy. Hobbles on a crutch and a cane he managed to get into a booth and cast his vote for the straight Democratic ticket. He has been afflicted with rheumatism for the past thirty years and for the past sixteen years has been practically helpless, but insists upon casting his vote every presidential election.

JUDGES AND CLERKS.

Following were the judges and clerks of election yesterday in the various wards:

First Ward.

Judges—William McHale, John T. Brown, Wm. H. Reinhardt.

Second Ward.

Judges—Capt. N. B. Thistlewood, W. B. Pettis, Frank M. Moore.

Third Ward.

Judges—H. B. Davison, A. S. Fraser, John Van Vactor.

Fourth Ward.

Judges—Alderman William Lawler, Charles Hamilton, John C. Fisher.

Fifth Ward.

Judges—Alfred Brown, E. H. Riggle, W. E. Fitzgerald.

Sixth Ward.

Judges—Walter Warder, Frank Fitzgerald, Earl Ford.

Seventh Ward.

Judges—Charles Lancaster, Arthur S. Magner, Capt. W. P. Greaney.

Eighth Ward.

Judges—John Grimes, C. B. Foster, A. S. Moss.

Clerks—Louis Sackberger, Joseph Clifford, William Cover.

THE WEATHER

Weather Yesterday.
Maximum temperature 65 degrees.
Minimum temperature 42 degrees.
Temperature at 7 p. m. 53 degrees.

Forecast for Today.
Partly cloudy, no decided change in temperature.

General Weather Conditions.
A storm centers off the New England coast. A secondary depression, or slight disturbance, centers in southern Ohio. An extensive area of high pressure has its crest in the north Pacific slope.

The temperature has fallen in the upper Ohio valley, and risen in Tennessee and along the south Pacific coast; elsewhere the changes have, as a rule, been immaterial.

Within the last 26 hours, very light rain has fallen in western Pennsylvania, western South Dakota, along the immediate Texas coast, and in Oregon; elsewhere the weather has continued generally fair.

Weather at St. Louis yesterday morning, clear; temperature, 44 degrees.

GENERAL LOCAL NEWS

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will hold an informal reception this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Albert Lewis, 811 Walnut street.

The trolley wire at the intersection of Eighth street and Commercial avenue broke last night about 9:15 o'clock while the crowd was reading the returns furnished by The Bulletin. Luckily no one was struck by the wire.

ROBBERS PROBABLY SET FIRE TO HOUSE

Fire was discovered this morning about 3 o'clock in the double cottage at 407 and 407½ Walnut street and fire company No. 2 was called to extinguish the flames.

The cottage is occupied on one side by Mrs. Sarah Walter and on the other side by Mr. J. V. Ralston, the tailor, and family. The fire was discovered in the portion of the house occupied by Mr. Ralston and was quickly subdued by the firemen with only slight loss.

It is believed the fire was caused by burglars entering the house and dropping a match or that it was set on fire by robbers.

WISCONSIN.

State is Close Between LaFollette and Peck for Governor.

By the Associated Press.
Milwaukee, Nov. 8.—It is generally conceded that Roosevelt carried Wisconsin by sixty to seventy-five thousand.

Both Republican and Democratic chairmen claim the state respectively for La Follette and Peck.

The above summarizes the statement made by leaders of both parties. Scofield (national Republican) state ticket received a very light vote. Eight Republican congressmen have been elected and two districts are still to be heard from. In the third district the race was close between Rabcock, Republican, and Gratiot, Democrat. The latest returns show the Democratic candidate to have a slight lead. In the remaining district, the ninth, meagre figures show Minor, Republican, to have a slight lead. Milwaukee county in which the great interest centered, was carried by La Follette by five to six thousand and carried the county ticket with him.
